

The Security Council,

RELEASED IN FULL

Recalling all its previous resolutions on the situation in Rwanda, in particular its resolution 872 (1993) of 5 October 1993 by which it established the United Nations Assistance Mission for Rwanda (UNAMIR) and its resolution 912 of 21 April by which it adjusted the mandate of UNAMIR,

Recalling also its statement of 7 April 1994 (S/PRST/1994/16) and its statement of 30 April 1994 (S/PRST/1994/24)

Reaffirming its condemnation of the ongoing violence in Rwanda and demanding an immediate end to the mindless violence and carnage which have engulfed Rwanda,

Noting that the situation in Rwanda constitutes a humanitarian crisis for the people of Rwanda and the people of neighbouring states on an unprecedented scale;

Welcoming cooperation with the OAU and with leaders of the region especially the facilitator to the Arusha peace process,

Expressing once again its grave alarm at continuing reports of widespread and flagrant violations of international humanitarian law occurring in Rwanda,

Mindful of its abhorrence of the crime of genocide punishable under international law,

Determining that the situation in Rwanda constitutes a threat to international peace and security in the region,

1. Decides that UNAMIR's mandate under Resolution 912 (1994) shall be adjusted as follows:

- (a) To act as an intermediary between the parties in an attempt to secure their agreement to a cease-fire; and
- (b) To monitor observance of any cease-fire agreement; and
- (c) To assist in the resumption of humanitarian relief operations; and
- (d) To monitor and report on developments in Rwanda;

2. Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, decides that UNAMIR's mandate shall also include the following responsibilities:

- (a) To contribute to the security of Rwandan civilians, and, to this end, to establish weapons-secure areas in locations to be designated by the Secretary General for the purpose of offering protection to concentrations of endangered civilians, in particular displaced persons and refugees; and
 - (b) To assist in the protection and facilitation of humanitarian relief operations; and
 - (c) To use force as necessary to establish, maintain and protect weapons-secure areas, and in self defence or for the protection of UNAMIR and other United Nations or humanitarian personnel;
3. Authorises an expansion of the UNAMIR force level to [] and urges the deployment of that force in the shortest possible time;
4. Encourages the Secretary General to accelerate his efforts, in conjunction with the Secretary General of the OAU to obtain commitments from OAU member states and other members of the United Nations for the necessary personnel to accomplish the urgent deployment of the expanded UNAMIR and to make appropriate arrangements with States neighbouring Rwanda for the deployment of UNAMIR personnel through their territories;
5. Requests member states to offer the Secretary General urgently logistical support capability for quick deployment of the UNAMIR expansion and its ongoing support in the field;
6. Requests the Secretary General, bearing in mind any recommendations from the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, the United Nations Human Rights Commission and relevant international organisations, to report, not later than 31 July 1994, on possible options for international prosecution of persons responsible for genocide or other serious violations of international humanitarian law committed in Rwanda since 1 April 1994;
7. Reiterates its demand for the immediate establishment of a ceasefire between the parties;
8. Welcomes the continued efforts by the Secretary-General to help promote and facilitate dialogue between all parties concerned;

9. Commends the efforts of States, United Nations agencies and non-governmental organisations which have provided humanitarian and other assistance, encourages them to continue and increase such assistance, and urges others to provide such assistance;

10. Commends in particular the efforts of the Organisation of African Unity and its agencies, as well as those of the Tanzanian Facilitator, in providing diplomatic, political, humanitarian support for the implementation of the relevant resolutions of the Council;

11. Acting under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations decides that all states shall immediately take measures to prevent the sale or supply by their nationals or from their territories of any weapons or military equipment;

12. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
